I would like my child to be placed on the waiting list for Year

Waiting lists will run until the end of the term in which the application is processed and need to be renewed at Christmas and Easter. You will need to send a new e-mail to reception@seafordhead.org with your details to renew the waiting list application or your child will be removed. Should an offer not be made by the summer holiday, you will need to submit a new application for the new academic year via the East Sussex County Council website

<https://www.eastsussex.gov.uk/educationandlearning/schools/admissions/apply/>

No reminders will be sent to parents.

Applicants must be aware when operating a waiting list the school is not permitted to rank children based on the date they have applied for a place. The school must follow the oversubscription criteria which can be found at www.seafordhead.org in the Parent Zone under Policies.
